

PERTH GLORY ACADEMY

PRE-ACADEMY PLAYER REGISTRATION AND PARTICIPATION – TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

The Perth Glory Pre-Academy program is designed to fit between the Glory Development Centre (GDC) and the National Premier League (NPL) pathway, the program is for players who are selected via the club's talent identification sessions. It will be delivered by a group of highly accredited coaches who have been specially selected for their expertise in working with players from this age group.

The program's focus is on the technical development of U12s players and improving their mentality and game understanding as part of easing their transition into playing 11-a-side football on a full-sized pitch, while they remain with their existing clubs. The Pre-Academy sessions will be in addition to their Club training, the program is designed to supplement their Club training and not replace it.

From January until September, Pre-Academy players will attend two sessions per week and participate in a three-day camp during January in which they will have access to Perth Glory's elite football facilities and senior coaching staff.

1. PARTICIPATION

Player development is our highest priority while your son is registered to train with Perth Glory FC Pre-Academy, we require 100% commitment from every player and parent in return.

All Parents and Players are to attend the induction meeting prior to the January 3 day camp. If you foresee this to be a problem moving forward, please contact our administration email academy@perthglory.com.au. We would prefer you are certain that your child will be attending, as fees cannot be refunded in full as outlined in our Cancellation and Refund Policy.

1.1. Training Sessions

We are one of four, 2 Star Academies in Australia and our program is ever evolving. We provide a player centered approach with an emphasis on building a high-performance development culture. There is attention on all areas of an individual's technical, tactical, physical, and psychological progression. Using a carefully thought-out model of development, our environment aims to provide quantity with quality. A Pre-Academy week consists of 2 group training sessions, however players can decide whether to train on Tuesdays & Saturdays OR Wednesdays & Saturdays, depending on the players' club commitment.

1.2. Provision of Training Kit

All Players will receive kit prior to or on the first training session. The cleaning of and maintenance of the Kit will remain the responsibility of the Player and their Parent/Guardian.
